[Assented to 19 August 1992]

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of Queensland in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows.

Object of Act

4. The object of this Act is to extend as far as possible the right of the community to have access to information held by Queensland government.

Reasons for enactment of Act

- 5.(1) Parliament recognises that, in a free and democratic society—

- (a) the public interest is served by promoting open discussion of public affairs and enhancing government's accountability; and
- (b) the community should be kept informed of government's operations, including, in particular, the rules and practices followed by government in its dealings with members of the community; and
- (c) members of the community should have access to information held by government in relation to their personal affairs and should be given the ways to ensure that information of that kind is accurate, complete, up-to-date and not misleading.

(2) Parliament also recognises that there are competing interests in that the disclosure of particular information could be contrary to the public interest because its disclosure in some instances would have a prejudicial effect on—

- (a) essential public interests; or
- (b) the private or business affairs of members of the community in respect of whom information is collected and held by government.

(3) This Act is intended to strike a balance between those competing interests by giving members of the community a right of access to information held by government to the greatest extent possible with limited exceptions for the purpose of preventing a prejudicial effect to the public interest of a kind mentioned in subsection (2).

Matter relating to personal affairs of applicant

6. If an application for access to a document is made under this Act, the fact that the document contains matter relating to the personal affairs of the applicant is an element to be taken into account in deciding—

(3) If a person—

- (a) wishes to make an application under this Act to an agency or Minister for access to a document; or
- (b) has made such an application but it does not comply with this section; or
- (c) has directed such an application to the wrong agency or Minister;

it is the duty of the agency or Minister to assist the person to make the application in a way that complies with this section or to direct the application to the appropriate agency or Minister, as the case may be.

(4) An agency or Minister must not refuse access to a document because the application does not comply with this section without first giving the applicant a reasonable opportunity of consultation with a view to making an application in a form that complies with this section.

Transfer of applications

26.(1) In this section—

“agency” includes a Minister.

(2) An agency to which an application has been made (the “receiving agency”) may transfer the application to another agency if—

- (a) the document to which the application relates—
  - (i) is not held by the receiving agency but is, to the receiving agency’s knowledge, held by the other agency; or
  - (ii) is held by the receiving agency but is more closely related to the functions of the other agency; and
- (b) the other agency consents to the transfer.

(3) An agency that transfers an application to another agency must—

- (a) if it holds the document to which the application relates—give a copy of the document (whether or not in the form of a written document) to the other agency with the application; and
- (b) immediately give the applicant written notice of the transfer, specifying in the notice the day on which, and the agency to which, the application has been transferred.

(4) An agency is not required to include exempt matter in a notice.

(5) An application that is transferred from one agency to another is taken to have been received by the other agency—

- (a) on the day on which it is transferred; or
- (b) 14 days after the day on which it was received by the agency to which it was originally made;

whichever is the earlier.

How applications are dealt with

27.(1) If an application for access to a document is made to an agency or Minister in accordance with this Act, the agency or Minister must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the applicant is notified that the application has been received as soon as practicable, but in any case not later than 14 days, after the application is received.

(2) After considering the application, the agency or Minister must decide—

- (a) whether access is to be given to the document; and
- (b) if access is to be given—any charge that must be paid before access is granted; and
- (c) any charge payable for dealing with the application.

(3) If it is apparent from the terms of the application that the applicant seeks information of a certain kind contained in documents of the agency or official documents of the Minister, the agency or Minister may, with the agreement of the applicant, deal with the application as if it were an application relating only to those parts of the documents that contain information of that kind.

(4) If the agency or Minister fails to determine an application within—

- (a) the appropriate period; or
- (b) if action is required under section 51 in relation to the application—a period equal to the appropriate period plus 15 days;

the agency or Minister is taken to have refused access to the document to which the application relates at the end of the period.

(5) If the agency or Minister decides that the applicant is liable to pay a charge in relation to the application or the provision of access to a document, the agency or Minister must notify the applicant in writing of the amount of the charge and of the basis on which the amount of the charge was calculated.

(6) This section does not require an agency to determine an application that has been transferred to another agency under section 26.

(7) In this section—

“appropriate period” means—

(a) in relation to an application to an agency or Minister for a document that—

(i) came into existence more than 5 years before the commencement of this Part; and

(ii) does not concern the personal affairs of the applicant;

60 days after the application is received by the agency or Minister;

or

(b) in relation to any other application—45 days after the application is received by the agency or Minister.

Access may be refused in certain cases

28.(1) An agency or Minister may refuse access to exempt matter or an exempt document.

(2) If—

(a) an application is expressed to relate to all documents, or to all documents of a specified class, that contain information of a specified kind or relate to a specified subject matter; and

(b) it appears to the agency or Minister dealing with the application that the work involved in dealing with the application would, if carried out—

(i) substantially and unreasonably divert the resources of the agency from their use by the agency in the performance of its functions; or

(ii) interfere substantially and unreasonably with the performance by the Minister of the Minister’s functions;

having regard only to the number and volume of the documents and to any difficulty that would exist in identifying, locating or collating the documents within the filing system of the agency or the office of the Minister; the agency or Minister may refuse to deal with the application.

(3) If—

(a) an application is expressed in the way mentioned in subsection (2)(a); and

(b) it appears to the agency or Minister concerned that all of the documents to which the application relates are exempt documents;

the agency or Minister may refuse access to all of the documents without having identified any or all of the documents and without specifying the reason that any matter in the documents is claimed to be exempt matter.

(4) An agency or Minister must not refuse access to a document under subsection (2) or (3) without first giving the applicant a reasonable opportunity of consultation with a view to making an application in a form that would remove the ground for refusal.

Fees and charges for access to documents

29.(1) In this section—

“agency” includes a Minister.

(2) An applicant applying for access to a document that does not concern the applicant’s personal affairs may be required, by regulation, to pay an application fee at the time the application is made.

(3) Any charge that is, by regulation, required to be paid by an applicant before access to a document is given is to be calculated in accordance with the following principles—

(a) no charge is to be made for the time spent by the agency in conducting a search for the document to which access is requested;

(b) no charge is to be made for supervising the inspection by the applicant of the matter to which access is granted;

(c) a charge may be made for the reasonable costs incurred by an agency in—

(i) supplying copies of documents; or

- (ii) making arrangements for hearing or viewing documents of a kind mentioned in section 30(1)(c); or
- (iii) providing a written transcript of the words recorded or contained in documents; or
- (iv) providing a written document under section 30(1)(e);
- (d) no charge is to be made for the time spent by an agency in—
  - (i) examining a document to determine whether it contains exempt matter; or
  - (ii) deleting exempt matter from a document;
- (e) no charge is to be made for producing for inspection a document mentioned in section 19(1), whether or not the document has been specified in a statement published under section 18;
- (f) no charge is to be made for the time spent in meeting the requirements of section 51.

(4) Subject to subsections (5) and (6), payment of a charge must not be required before the agency has notified the applicant of its decision on access to a document.

(5) If in an agency's opinion a charge might be more than $25 or such greater amount as is prescribed, the agency must notify the applicant of its opinion and ask whether the applicant wishes to proceed with the application.

(6) A notice under subsection (5) requiring an applicant to pay a deposit must—

- (a) specify the name and designation of the person who calculated the charge; and
- (b) inform the applicant of—
  - (i) the applicant's right to apply for a review of the charge; and
  - (ii) the procedures to be followed for exercising the right; and
  - (iii) the time within which the application for review must be made.

(7) An agency may, in a notice given to an applicant under subsection (5), require the applicant to pay a deposit of a prescribed amount, or at a prescribed rate, on account of the charge.

(8) If an agency requires an applicant to pay a deposit on account of a charge, the period beginning on the day on which the applicant is notified of the requirement and ending on the day on which the deposit is paid is to be disregarded for the purposes of section 27(4).

(9) If an agency requires an applicant to pay a deposit on account of a charge, the agency must, if requested to do so by the applicant, discuss with the applicant practicable alternatives for altering the application or reducing the anticipated charge, including reducing the charge if the applicant waives, either conditionally or unconditionally, the need for the agency to comply with section 27(4).

(10) Subject to this section, the prescribed charges must be uniform for all agencies, and there must be no variation of charges between different applicants in relation to like services.

Forms of access

30.(1) Access to a document may be given to a person in one or more of the following forms—

- (a) a reasonable opportunity to inspect the document;
- (b) providing a copy of the document;
- (c) if the document is an article or material from which sounds or visual images are capable of being reproduced—making arrangements for the person to hear the sounds or view the images;
- (d) if the document is one—
  - (i) by which words are recorded in a way in which they are capable of being reproduced in the form of sound; or
  - (ii) in which words are contained in the form of shorthand writing or in codified form;

providing a written transcript of the words recorded or contained in the document;

- (e) if—

- (i) the application relates to information that is not contained in a written document held by the agency; and
  - (ii) the agency could create a written document containing the information using equipment that is usually available to it for retrieving or collating stored information;
- providing a written document so created.

(2) Subject to this section and section 32, if an applicant has requested access in a particular form, access must be given in that form.

(3) If giving access in the form requested by the applicant—

- (a) would interfere unreasonably with the operations of the agency, or the performance by the Minister of the Minister's functions; or
- (b) would be detrimental to the preservation of the document or, having regard to the physical nature of the document, would be inappropriate; or
- (c) would involve an infringement of the copyright of a person other than the State;

access in that form may be refused and given in another form.

(4) If an applicant is given access to a document in a form different to the form of access requested by the applicant, the applicant must not be required to pay a charge that is more than the charge that would have been payable if access had been given in the form requested by the applicant.

(5) Access under subsection (1)(a) to a document to which section 23 or 24 applies must be given by affording the applicant a reasonable opportunity to inspect the document on the premises of the Queensland State Archives or public library or in an office of an agency.

(6) If a document is more than 20 years old or in the custody of the Queensland State Archives, the State Archivist may direct that access not be given in one or more, but not all, of the forms mentioned in subsection (1) if, in the State Archivist's opinion, giving access in that form would be detrimental to the document's preservation or, having regard to the physical nature of the document, would be inappropriate.

(7) This section does not prevent an agency or Minister giving access to a document in another form agreed to by the applicant.

Access may be deferred in certain cases

31. An agency or Minister may defer providing access to a document for a reasonable period if the document was prepared—

- (a) for presentation to the Legislative Assembly or a committee of the Legislative Assembly; or
- (b) for release to the media; or
- (c) solely for inclusion, in the same or an amended form, in a document to be prepared for a purpose mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b); and the document is yet to be presented or released, or included in a document to be presented or released, as the case may be.

Deletion of exempt matter

32. Subject to section 35, if—

- (a) an application is made for access to a document containing exempt matter (including a document that is the subject of a certificate under section 36, 37 or 42); and
- (b) it is practicable to give access to a copy of the document from which the exempt matter has been deleted; and
- (c) it appears to the agency or Minister concerned (whether from the terms of the application or after consultation with the applicant) that the applicant would wish to be given access to such a copy;

the agency or Minister is to give access accordingly.

Persons who are to make decisions for agencies and Ministers

33.(1) An application is to be dealt with on behalf of an agency (other than a local authority)—

- (a) by the agency's principal officer; or

(b) by such other officer of the agency as the principal officer directs, either generally or in a particular case.

(2) An application for access to a local authority's document is to be dealt with on behalf of the authority—

(2) The notice must specify—

(a) the day on which the decision was made; and

(b) the amount of any charge that was payable for making the application; and

(c) if access is to be given to the document the subject of the application (whether immediately or subject to deferral)—the amount of any charge payable for giving access; and

(d) if access is to be given to a copy of the document subject to the deletion of exempt matter—

(i) the fact that the document is such a copy; and

(ii) the provision of this Act under which the matter is exempt matter; and

(iii) the reasons for the decision classifying the matter as exempt matter; and

- (e) if access to the document is to be given subject to deferral—
  - (i) the reason for the deferral; and
  - (ii) the day on which the agency or Minister expects the document to be presented or released as mentioned in section 31; and

- (h) the name and designation of the officer who made the decision; and

(3) An agency or Minister is not required to include any exempt matter in the notice.

Information as to existence of certain documents

35.(1) Nothing in this Act requires an agency or Minister to give information as to the existence or non-existence of a document containing matter that would be exempt matter under section 36, 37 or 42.

(2) If an application relates to a document that includes exempt matter of that kind, the agency or Minister concerned may give written notice to the applicant that—

- (a) the agency or Minister neither confirms nor denies the existence of such a document as a document of the agency or an official document of the Minister;
- (b) but that, assuming the existence of such a document, it would be an exempt document.

(3) If a notice is given under subsection (2)—

- (a) section 34 applies as if the decision to give the notice were the decision on the application mentioned in that section; and

- (b) the decision to give the notice were a decision refusing access to the document because the document would, if it existed, be exempt.
